

Daily Fixed Income Report (19 April 2023)

HEI Fixed Income Market Commentary

- Yesterday, the South African rand weakened against the US dollar. In South Africa, consumer price inflation rose for a second consecutive month in March. Moreover, retail sales declined more than expected in February. Separately in the US, the number of MBA mortgage applications dropped in the week ended 14 April 2023.
- Table 2 observed an increase in all sovereign bonds, with the short-dated bond, the GC2027 bond yield soaring from 9.27% to 9.49%, thereafter the longer-dated GC2043 bond yield exhibited a significant increase from 12.89% to 13.69%.
- As observed in Table 2, the two-day soar in bond yields could be attributed to economic data releases, interest rate changes by central banks.
- Table 1 displayed no changes in fixed-term deposits
